You Can Stop Losing Younger Generations without Your Supervisors Losing Their Minds

Haydn Shaw

Haydn Shaw, hilarious and impactful expert and researcher on why the classic management skills don't stop turnover anymore.

You don't need someone to make your workforce more complicated, you need it easier. You don't need theory, you need results. Haydn is a respected researcher who knows how to teach you precisely what you need because he has hands-on experience—he's done 5000 days with clients from warehouse supervisors to the Joint Chief of Staff. Haydn Shaw is the most practical generational expert. He will raise your Generational iQ and show you how to turn generational sticking points into productivity.
